

Community Living Mississauga: Updating Letters Patent

Old Letters Patent	New Letters Patent
Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, and after the payment of all debts and liabilities, the remaining property of the Corporation should be distributed or disposed of to charitable organizations which carry on their work solely in Canada.	Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, and after the payment of all debts and liabilities, the remaining property of the Corporation should be distributed or disposed of to a Canadian body corporate that is a registered charity under the Income Tax Act (Canada) with similar purposes to its own.
The Directors shall serve as Directors and Officers without remuneration, and the Directors shall not receive, directly or indirectly, any profit from their positions as Directors or Officers, but may be paid reasonable expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties	Unchanged.
No part of the income of the Corporation may be payable or otherwise available for the personal benefit of any member thereof.	Unchanged.
Providing that the head office of the Corporation shall be located in the Regional Municipality of Peel	Unchanged.
Objects of the Corporation: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To ensure that persons with developmental disabilities or other handicapping conditions live in a state of dignity, share in all elements of living in the community, and have the opportunity to participate effectively; 2. To establish, operate and maintain a comprehensive range of programs and services for such persons (and their families) and to cooperate with and support other agencies, organizations, groups and government departments which provide similar or complementary programs and services; 3. To assist such persons in realizing their individual potential within the community; 	The objects of the Corporation are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To ensure that people who have an intellectual disability live in a state of dignity, share in all elements of living in the community, and have the opportunity to participate effectively; 2. To establish, operate and maintain a comprehensive range of programs and services for people who have an intellectual disability (and their families) and to cooperate with and support other agencies, organizations, groups and government departments which provide similar or complementary programs and services; 3. To assist people who have an intellectual disability in realizing their individual potential within the community;

<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. To promote the rights, education, development and welfare and interests of such persons, and to cooperate with and support other agencies, organizations, groups and government departments having a similar purpose; 5. To develop a better understanding of developmental disabilities and other handicapping conditions (and issues related thereto) by the general public; 6. To further the training and education of personnel and volunteers who work with (or on behalf of) persons with developmental disabilities or other handicapping conditions; 7. To support medical and scientific research and study into the nature and causes of developmental disabilities and other handicapping conditions, with a view to developing methods of prevention and treatment thereof; 8. To provide opportunities whereby individuals, groups, agencies, or organizations (who share the purposes and objects of the Corporation) are able to become involved within the Corporation; 9. To unite the efforts of all persons interested in pursuing the goals and objects of the Corporation; 10. To inform the general public about the affairs and work of the Corporation; 11. To raise, receive, invest and disburse funds for the accomplishment of the above objects, provided that the foregoing shall be subject to the law and jurisprudence governing charities; 12. To accept donations, gifts, legacies and bequests; 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. To promote the rights, education, development and welfare and interests of people who have an intellectual disability, and to cooperate with and support other agencies, organizations, groups and government departments having a similar purpose; 5. To promote awareness with respect to community inclusion of people who have an intellectual disability (and issues related thereto); 6. To offer training and education of employees and volunteers who work with (or on behalf of) people who have an intellectual disability. 7. Deleted. 8. Deleted. 9. Deleted. 10. To inform the general public about the affairs and work of the Corporation; 11. To raise, receive, invest and disburse funds for the accomplishment of the above objects, provided that the foregoing shall be subject to the law and jurisprudence governing charities; 12. To accept donations, gifts, legacies and bequests;
Special Provisions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Corporation shall be subject to the Charities Accounting Act and the Charitable Gifts Act. 	The Special provisions of the Corporation are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Corporation shall be subject to the Charities Accounting Act and the Charitable Gifts Act. 2. Deleted.

<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. The borrowing power of the Corporation pursuant to any by-law passed and confirmed in accordance with section 59 of the Corporations Act shall be limited to borrowing money for current operating expenses, provided that the borrowing power of the Corporation shall not be so limited if it borrows on the security of real or personal property. 3. If it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Minister, upon report of the Public Trustee, that the Corporation has failed to comply with any of the provisions of the Charities Accounting Act or the Charitable Gifts Act, the Minister may authorize an inquiry for the purpose of determining whether or not there is sufficient cause for the Lieutenant Governor to make an Order under subsection 317(1) of the Corporations Act to cancel the Letters Patent of the Corporation and declare it to be dissolved. 4. To invest and re-invest the funds of the Corporation in such manner as determined by the Board of Directors, and in making such investments, the Board of Directors shall not be subject to the Trustee Act (Ontario), but provided that such investments are reasonable, prudent and sagacious under the circumstances and do not constitute, either directly or indirectly, a conflict of interest; 5. For the above objects, and as incidental and ancillary thereto, to exercise any of the powers as prescribed by the Corporations Act (Ontario), or by any other statutes or laws from time to time applicable, except where such power is limited by these letters patent or the statute or common law relating to charities. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 3. If it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Minister, upon report of the Public Trustee, that the Corporation has failed to comply with any of the provisions of the Charities Accounting Act or the Charitable Gifts Act, the Minister may authorize an inquiry for the purpose of determining whether or not there is sufficient cause for the Lieutenant Governor to make an Order under subsection 317(1) of the Corporations Act to cancel the Letters Patent of the Corporation and declare it to be dissolved. 4. To invest and re-invest the funds of the Corporation in such manner as determined by the Board of Directors, and in making such investments, the Board of Directors shall not be subject to the Trustee Act (Ontario), provided that such investments are reasonable and prudent under the circumstances and do not constitute, either directly or indirectly, a conflict of interest; 5. For the above objects, and as incidental and ancillary thereto, to exercise any of the powers as prescribed by the Corporations Act (Ontario), or by any other statutes or laws from time to time applicable, except where such power is limited by these letters patent or the statute or common law relating to charities; 6. The Membership of the Corporation shall be made up of two classes, Annual Membership and Honorary Life Membership; 7. The Corporation shall have the capacity, rights, powers and privileges of a natural person.
The Corporation shall be entitled to carry out the following incidental powers:	The Corporation has the following incidental powers:

<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To solicit and receive donations, gifts, legacies and bequests for use in promoting the objects of and carrying on the work of the Corporation, and to enter into agreements, contracts and undertakings incidental thereto; 2. To acquire, by purchase, contract, donation, legacy, gift, grant, bequest or otherwise, any personal property and to enter into and carry out any agreements, contracts or undertakings incidental thereto, and to sell, dispose of and convey the same, or any part thereof, as may be considered advisable; 3. To acquire by purchase, lease, devise, gift, or otherwise, real property, and to hold such real property or interest therein necessary for the actual use and occupation of the Corporation or for carrying on its charitable undertaking, and, when no longer so necessary to sell, dispose of and convey the same or any part thereof; and 4. To accumulate from time to time part of the fund or funds of the Corporation and income therefrom subject to any statutes or laws from time to time applicable. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To solicit and receive donations, gifts, legacies and bequests for use in promoting the objects of and carrying on the work of the Corporation, and to enter into agreements, contracts and undertakings incidental thereto; 2. To acquire, by purchase, contract, donation, legacy, gift, grant, bequest or otherwise, any personal property and to enter into and carry out any agreements, contracts or undertakings incidental thereto, and to sell, dispose of and convey the same, or any part thereof, as may be considered advisable; 3. To acquire by purchase, lease, devise, gift, or otherwise, real property, and to hold such real property or interest therein necessary for the actual use and occupation of the Corporation or for carrying on its charitable undertaking, and, when no longer so necessary to sell, dispose of and convey the same or any part thereof; and 4. To accumulate from time to time part of the fund or funds of the Corporation and income therefrom subject to any statutes or laws from time to time applicable.
N/A	Increasing the number of directors of the Corporation to a floating board of 8-16.